HEAR-IT-TIZZ

Our ONE & ONLY regulation street MAIL BOX recently installed at Dolores & Ocean has been the subject of many heated discussions in the coffeebars and other gathering places around town and on Monday last it hit the air over MUTUAL when FLOYD BUICK discussed it on his KFRC program. LEADING the fight against the GREEN MONSTER which she feels is another entering wedge to change the character of the town is ADA O'MALLEY. This column's more or less complimentary remarks last week have borne some of the brunt of MRS. O'MALLEY'S displeasure. We are somewhat "on the FENCE" now, ADA, so perhaps this note will help rally some support for your cause and you may be able to raise a fund, in the Carmel tradition, to buy the box from Uncle Sam and put it in Pacific Grove where they have sidewalks.....GOOD TO SEE---Back in town is PEYTON MARCH. In September a year ago PEYTON joined the Air Force Reserve and a month or so later much to his surprise WHAM, he was called to active duty. It was not long before he and other W.W.II VETS found that their recall was a SNAFU. It should not have happened in the first place. THEY meant to take only non-vets. It took a little doin' but now you can see MR. MARCH back on Dolores Street.

.....When you go to see the CINDERELLA BALLET tomorrow night or the following Saturday take note, among other beautiful things, of the COACH. When arranging the performance such a vehicle was not to be found but they could not have a Cinderella without a Coach, so TED GAMBLE, father of PAMELA GAMBLE, had one built at his Furniture store, and MRS GAMBLE made the SEQUINS for CINDERELLA.....SILENT partner, GEORGE RANDALL, of the Carmel Valley Country Club, off to Orlando, Fla, next week to spend Thanksgiving with his parents. Upon his return will bring his children back to see the BEAUTIFUL Carmel Valley he is so sold on.....Incidentally, there are some TERRIFIC shows being put on at the CVCC these nights. The talent working there is tops but sometimes the customers help out as on last Saturday when RENEE POSTON performed. Mrs POSTON was formerly BALLERINA of the San Francisco OPERA and was at the club celebrating her wedding anniversary and also the opening of a new dress shop, next to her gift shop in the Valley.....CECIL MURPHREE, Reserve Army Captain, now organizing the convention of the Reserve Officers Association to take place on the Peninsula in April.....The PAMPERED POOCHES of Carmel now have their selection of HORSEMEAT. One shop is advertising "Celophane wrapped horsemeat" and another "Choice EASTERN horsemeat." Are the horses better in the East? They are not so rugged back there huh?.....

OLLIE BROOK back home at the L. L. LODGE, from the hospital. In good shape.....MRS D. D. STOFER and MRS HOWARD MURPHY hosted a Linen shower for pretty BARBARA ANN MAY, the local bride of the month. BARBARA ANN, who won the first prize in last spring's SPECTATOR CIRCULATION CLUB, will marry CHARLES GREENE JOHNSON, of BALTIMORE Md, on Nov. 27. Wedding reception to be at Fort Ord Officers Club at 2100.....For news of another SPECTATOR Circulation Club winner look elsewhere in this issue.....CONGRATULATIONS to the FRYS--T.C. & AL. TINSLEY FRY just elected president of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce and AL (no relation) named First Vice-president. Among the new directors elected are GUY BURNETTE and CORUM JACKSON of Carmel. The latter seems to crop up continuously in these columns as he is the "ELECTIONEST" man we know. HEAR TELL he MIGHT run in an election to be open for voting by JOHN Q. PUBLIC.....ROCKY BOWERSOX, The Restaurateur with the ALL YEAR beautiful place down the coast, in Los Angeles on business.....LEAVING TOWN is ELIZABETH FOGEL, executive secretary of the Carmel RED CROSS. We hate to see you leave but we know it's an exciting time for a marriage, MISS FOGEL, and all HAPPINESS to you----Understand your successor is VERNICE JENSEN, formerly of the PINE INN, who has an outstanding background for the position.....SIGHTS-TO-SEE, the new illustrations by BILL O'MALLEY on the outside walls of the FRENCH SHOP. Especially noted and appreciated by our Boxer mascot TEE VEE is the dog chain.....Celebrating their 44th WED-

STAMP CLUB RE-ELECTS COL. JOHN WRIGHT

Col. John R. Wright was re-elected president of the Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club at the organization's annual dinner held in the Pine Inn last Sunday. Other officers named were Leland S. Stallings, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Mooney, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Nora Mc Caffrey Law, publicity.

President Wright spoke of the new commemorative stamps to be issued this year, of the million dollars' worth of stamps to be exhibited by the United States Post Office, and of the United Nations first day covers with mint stamps to be mailed only from the UN post office in New York.

The Club will meet again November 19 at 8 p.m. in the lounge of the Carmel High School, and all Peninsulites have been invited to attend.

BRIDGE EXPERT TO SPEAK AT MPCC LUNCHEON

The third-Tuesday-of-the-month luncheon at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club, scheduled for November 20, will be Bridge Day. Mr. George Gooden, bridge expert, assisted by Mrs. Gooden, has planned a lecture which will be interesting to bridge players and non players alike. He will also give a lesson which will be suitable for intermediate and advanced players.

Mrs. Charles Dolan, who is Bridge chairman for the Monterey Peninsula Country Club, will be in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Robert McDonald.

Reservations may be made by calling the Club office--5-5171.

HALLOWE'EN at NEPENTHE

SILHOUETTED AGAINST CARMEL MISSION is the beautiful Bride Doll to be awarded at the December 1 Christmas Party to be given in Crespi Hall by the Serra School Mothers' Club and the Serra Men's Club. The doll's costumes have been beautifully fashioned by Mrs. Gail Minogue and comprise a bridal gown and complete trousseau packed in a piece of smart airplane luggage. (Polaroid one-minute photo)

CHRISTMAS PARTY IN CRESPI HALL SET FOR DEC. 1

In the battle of the sexes over the Christmas party to be given jointly by the Mothers Club of the Serra School and the Serra Men's Club in Crespi Hall Saturday evening, December 1, the ladies lost. The Mothers Club held out for a strictly feminine affair with lace tablecloths, homemade dainties for refreshments, and lovely decor to match the exquisite bride doll which will be awarded on that evening. But the men would have none of it.

"It has to be hot dogs, cokes, beer, and games, if you want us to go along with you," said Bill Woolsey, acting president of the Men's Club in the absence of Clark Bensberg who is in Europe.

"We like to have fun and can't be bothered with all that woman's nonsense."

So hot dogs, cokes and games will be the order of the evening, which will be under the supervision of Mrs. Waldo Hicks and Mr. Bill Woolsey. Secretly the ladies were delighted as it will mean a great lessening of work on their part.

The party will benefit the Christmas projects of the Serra School, which includes primarily a library. Sister Superior has made up a list of wanted books and contributions have been requested. A copy of this list may be had on request.

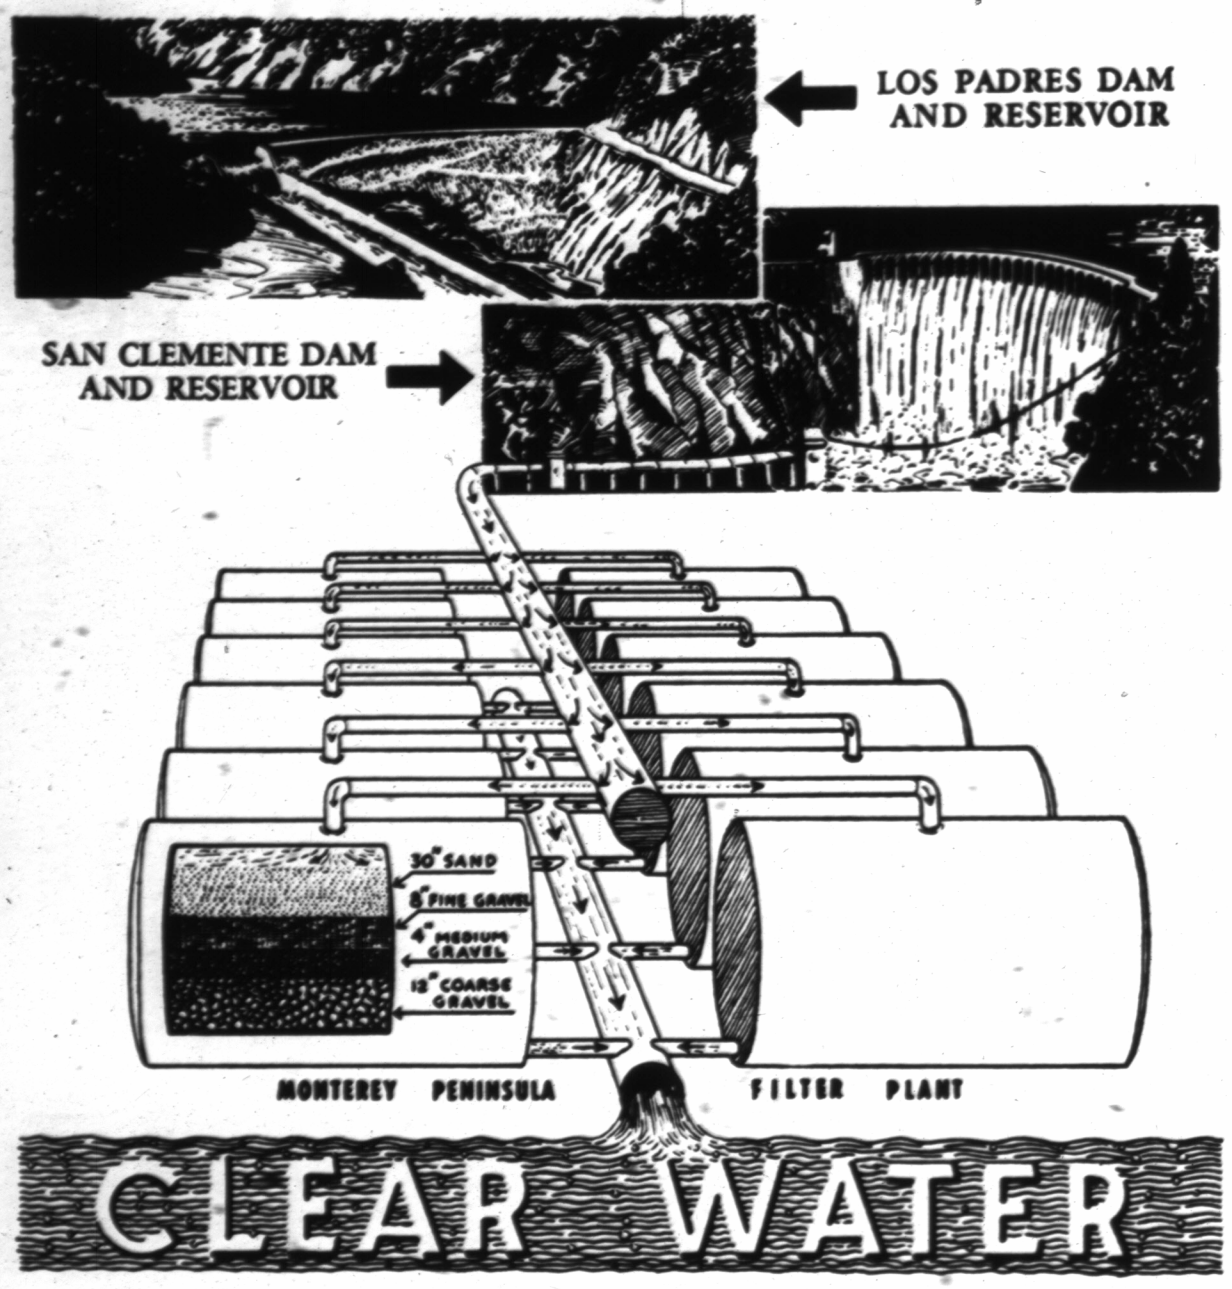
BY WALLY BISHOP



The strange-looking diagram in the illustration above is called a "schematic" drawing. It is a draftsman's way of showing how the water of the Carmel River, the source of the Peninsula's supply, is clarified by passing through a modern pressure-type filter plant. The water reaches the filter through a 30-inch pipeline and is then diverted into huge steel tanks where it is forced through many layers of sand and gravel. This process removes the various materials picked up by the water in its travels over the rough land of the watershed. After filtration the water is sent on its way into the distribution system, clear and sparkling.

The portion of the water system which you see in the illustration represents a capital investment of nearly $2,000,000, which is less than one-third of the total investment in the Monterey Peninsula plant, most of which is underground and out of sight. It's amazing, how much of your water system you don't see.

In a growing community such as the Peninsula a water system must expand continuously to meet the public need. Funds for new construction do not come from water bills but from the sale of company securities in the capital markets of the country. It is therefore essential that rates be sufficient to produce earnings that will attract the investor.

CIRCULATION CLUB WINNER MAKES GOOD. Pictured above is pretty Susan Kay of Pebble Beach with some of her recent prize winning ribbons. Last year, Susan, who is now just eleven years old, wanted to take up horseback riding and realizing that lessons are expensive she determined to earn some money to defray the costs. Susan entered the SPECTATOR Circulation Club last spring and emerged with the Pebble Beach district prize of $100. Since then she has become one of Richard Collins' prize pupils. Asked why she wanted to take up horseback riding--whether it was because she loved horses--Susan came up with an answer far beyond her years. It was not necessarily the love of horses, she replied, "It's the Competition in Life."

JACK DOUGHERTY NAMED HEAD OF MISSION TRAILS ASSN.

Meeting in convention last week in Monterey, the California Mission Trails Association elected Jack Dougherty, owner-manager of the Casa Munras Hotel, president for 1952.

Mr. Dougherty was the unanimous choice to succeed Edwin L. Carty of Oxnard, who was named chairman of the Board of Directors. Approximately 150 leading hotel and resort operators and county officials attended the convention.

Secretary "Cass" Kennedy of the California Highway Commission told the annual convention that during the current year and the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1952, Mission Trails Coastal California from San Francisco to San Diego is slated to receive more than $60,000,000 in new major highway construction and feeder roads.

In discussing highway construction, Highway Commission Secretary Kennedy stated that more than $30,000,000 has been or will be spent during the current fiscal year in major highway projects along the 600 mile scenic coastal area.

At the same time, Kennedy's breakdown of the State Highway Division's major construction projects budgeted for the 1952-53 fiscal year along the Mission Trails coastal route total $29,777,000.

Other major business transacted by the travel promotion group included approval of a strong five point promotional program.

'HASTY HEART' SET FOR NOV. 23RD OPENING

"The Hasty Heart," a touching drama by native Carmel playwright John Patrick, brings a splendid cast of feature actors to Sunset Auditorium for a series of performances commencing November 23. Sole feminine role will be played by Peg Miner (recently seen in the Barn Theatre's "The Man").

Rick Masten will portray the dour Scots lad, Lachlen, and Nick Pappas, Jim Hare, Alan Greif, Gene Ettler, Michael Franke, Richard Brautigan will play other parts. Staff: Director, Charlie Thomas assisted by Esther Fleharty; Stage Manager, Dolph Tewes assisted by Wes Fleharty; Props, Edythe Plamondon, Karen Williams and Paul Plamondon; Lights, Lucille Kiesteř; Sets, Wes Fleharty.

John Patrick's very moving drama of the Scots boy doomed to die gives a very authentic picture of several convalescents in a British hospital at the Assam-Burma front during the last war. It is a colorful, tender, humorous play and received wide acclaim in the New York production for its simplicity and sincerity.

MANY PARTICIPANTS IN TOURS OF PENINSULA STUDIOS

On the Walking Tour of nine Carmel studios this week, 72 persons attended on Thursday and 83 on Tuesday.

Eighty-five persons made the tour by automobiles of the Carmel Valley studios. The seven Pacific Grove and Monterey studios were visited by 74 guests. Salinas asked for and received a special tour which 39 visitors attended.

Carmel plans to have similar Studio Tours at intervals during the year, according to an announcement this week, and special tours may be arranged by any organization, by request.

'AMIGO MEXICO' COLOR FILMS SHOWN WOMAN'S CLUB

Mr. Frank C. Kugelberg entertained the ladies of the Carmel Woman's Club and their guests by word, music and picture in his talk last Monday on the Republic of Mexico. He gave a brief account of the history of the country, described the climate both temperate and tropical and said that many American manufacturers have established plants there, partially because they are free of taxes for five years.

His color films showed the beautiful falls, lakes and drives, buildings and flowers which abound in this colorful republic and its metropolis, Mexico City.

In the list of donors to the recent rummage sale, the Hour Glass was omitted and the Club wishes to thank them for their generous contribution. The bridge club section will meet Nov. 12 at 12:30 for a pot luck luncheon and members have been asked to bring either a hot dish or a dessert. Those wishing to play Canasta should bring cards and baskets.

CRAIG OWENS' BACK FROM EUROPE

Mrs. Helen Roberts of La Loma Terrace entertained Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Craig Owens, formerly of Carmel. Mr. and Mrs. Owens have just returned from a six month trip to Europe, visiting the Scandinavian countries, the British Isles and many countries on the Continent.

In their travels they met several Monterey Peninsula residents and all agreed, "There is no place more beautiful than home." The Owens have recently moved into their new home at 1644 Doris Drive, Menlo Park.

MURPHREE TO HEAD 1952 R.O.A. CONVENTION COMMITTEE

Carmel resident Capt. Cecil H. Murphree of Stolte Inc. was chosen this week to head the Reserve Officers 1952 Convention Committee to succeed Col. W. S. Richards who has been ordered to active duty at Fort Hood, Texas.

Under the skillful guidance of a "Sky's-the-limit" aviator, plus hard-as-nails business executive, the Monterey Peninsula may have every confidence that its 1952 Reserve Officer Convention will soar well above any others had to date, the announcement pointed out.

- U.S. APPRECIATION WEEK -

In responding to Mayor Knight's proclamation of November as American Appreciation Month with its second week devoted to Education, Mrs. Bonnie Giles, hostess at Carmel Youth Center and Legion Auxiliary Chairman of the Schoolchild Patriotic Essay Contest, stated:

"I would ask all my fellow Carmelites to observe our American Education Appreciation posters in the Post Office, the City Hall and the Library and reflect most thankfully on what a noble heritage we all have in our American Educational System.

"It is especially fitting in this Thanksgiving month that we take time out to realize something of the glory that is ours for our heritage of freedom to learn, that thus we may remain free.

"Really, isn't it great to be an American?

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

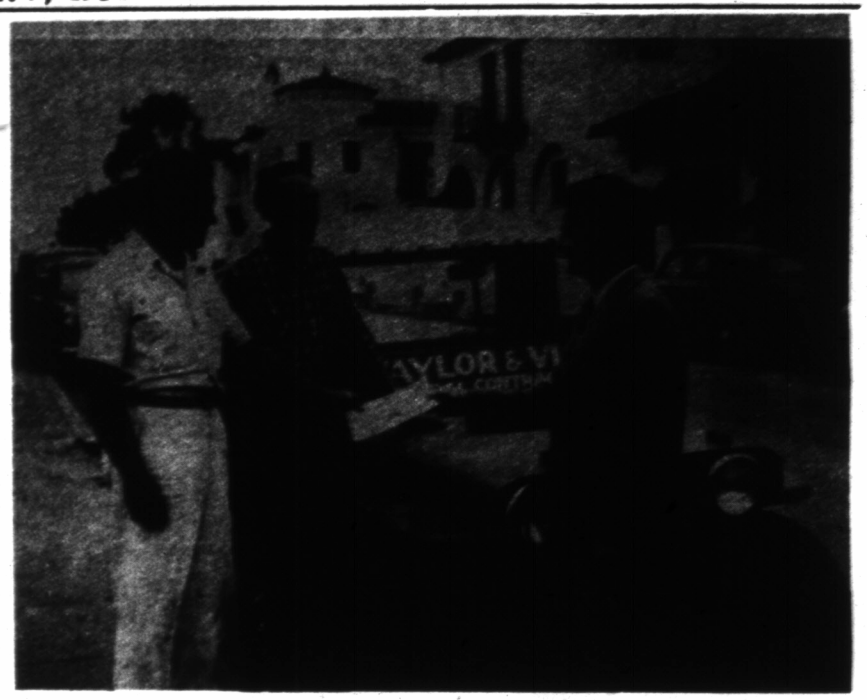
Score yourself on this week's "Who Is It?" Subtract 15 points from your score for each column-inch you have to read before you can identify the well known chap pictured on page 5.

Mr. Whoozit was born in Berkeley, California, grew up on North slope of Russian Hill 'within two wine bottle throws of Fishermans Wharf'... Took his first job while in high school as 'pony reader' for Associated Press (pony readers foreran the news bureau teletype like the pony express preceded the telegraph. Mr. Whoozit, like a radio commentator, read the latest news dispatches over telephone to the waiting subscribers. He was one of the last of the pony boys.)

He then went on to San Francisco Chronicle as reporter at age of 19. One of his first jobs was to cover the hanging of a torch fiend. He was vastly humiliated when the editor phoned his father to gain parental permission for the assignment... He went to San Mateo J.C. where he edited the campus paper, climbed on up to Stanford where he did not major in journalism because his father did not believe in it. (His father was political editor of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin for many years during the '20's while his grandfather was chief editorial writer for Hearst.) While at Stanford, Mr. Whoozit was campus correspondent for the S.F. News... Out of college went back to S.F. Call Bulletin where he specialized in everything--reporting, rewrite, copy desk, and finally as picture editor.

As full fledged newspaperman went into army, was shunted into Signal Corps where he ended up in Europe as signal center chief on duty in England and France... Tried every way to join the Paris office of Stars and Stripes newspaper. Was finally put on board ship for redeployment from Europe to the Philippines. As he walked up the gangplank his assignment to Stars and Stripes was delivered--but too late to cut new orders. So Mr. Whoozit both missed and made the boat. However he did not have to fight the Japanese. Before he could be trans-shipped, VE day came along and before long Mr. Whoozit was a civilian again.

Came to Carmel in '46, married a nurse at the army's Dibble Hospital, built home on Scenic Avenue... Joined Carmel Police Department for four years, quit last spring to devote full time to free lance photography. Is now adjutant of Carmel's American Legion Post 512, is the devoted father of two children, sells many pictures to the CARMEL SPECTATOR. A very nice fellow whom you should know by now is this week's "Who Is It?"--ARTHUR McEWEN.



IN RECOGNITION of a year's operation without an industrial injury, "Bert" Taylor and "Herb" Vial, Carmel contractors, this week received a Safety Award certificate from the firm's insurance carrier.

Presentation was made by Robert L. Little representing the insurance company. He pointed out that a perfect safety record is an unusual achievement today. In fourteen years Taylor and Vial have had only a few minor claims.

This award reflects credit on the safety program sponsored by Taylor and Vial and the cooperation of all employees. "We hear a lot about accidents--but it's the accidents that don't happen that benefit the employer, the workers, and the community," Little added.

THE RUG DOCTOR

IS PROUD TO ANNOUNCE THAT

The Bigelow-Sanford Carpet Co.

has selected our firm as the Peninsula representative of a revolutionary method of carpet cleaning developed by Bigelow-Sanford Research Engineers, and advertised nationally on Radio and Television under the tradename "Karpet Kare."

This carpet cleaning method was developed by Bigelow-Sanford especially to meet the need for a SAFE EFFECTIVE way to clean wall-to-wall carpet in the home in such a way as to prolong the life of the carpet and to retard re-soiling.

Our men have completed a course at the Carpet Cleaning Institute in New York City, and we have purchased the necessary equipment and the special detergents required for this new method.

Last year this firm was selected to send men to the MOHAWK CARPET mills for a course in carpet repair and laying. Now we feel doubly honored in being authorized to display the emblems of BOTH of the two greatest names in the carpet industry.

To celebrate this milestone in the growth of our firm in its ability to serve the people of the Monterey Peninsula we offer:

VETERANS ASKED TO REGISTER WITH MONTEREY SERVICE OFFICE

"Before you went into military service, the place to register was your draft board; now that you are out of uniform, the place to register is the Monterey Veterans Service Office." This is the suggestion issued to both old and new veterans in Monterey Peninsula area by Claude S. Estill, Veterans' Service Officer.

Whether he is a "new" veteran just released from service, or whether he is an older veteran who has moved to this community recently, Mr. Estill pointed out that having his name on file with the Veterans Office is a good form of "insurance," regardless of his need for specific assistance at this time. There is no charge for any advice or assistance out of this office.

"Even if a veteran has no problems at the moment, he may wish to draw upon his veteran's benefits eventually," Mr. Estill stated. "It will be to his advantage for us to have the necessary information about him on file already."

Veterans cannot be expected to know how or where to apply for all the various types of benefits to which they are entitled by law, or even where to write for information. A veteran may want to be informed about civil service preference, vocational rehabilitation, medical treatment, what to do about his government insurance, or whether he qualifies for a home loan.

HEAR - IT - TIZZ, cont'd.

DING Anniversary on the 10th are MR & MRS EDWARD McMURTRY of Carmel..... REMEMBER WHEN they used to run those ads headed "They laughed when I sat down at the Piano?" A little while ago they were saying that about ED GRAHAM who with his wife has the music store on Mission. But no more--and this is not meant to be an ad for ED. Since taking on the Hammond Chord Organ, which comes equipped with a book transfering the music notes to letters, etc., so anyone can figure out a tune (if it's in the book), ED has learned how to play it. His wife WAS the musician in the family. He used to be in the insurance "game." Drop up and hear MR. GRAHAM...He likes to play for you...and you...and YOU. .....A SLAPPED WRIST to our MAKE-UP GIRL who last week left out several lines in this column. They contained some nice compliments about DEREK RAYNE from GEORGE FRANCIS, publisher of the NAPA REGISTER (one of the State's better newspapers) and who now lives here..... .....SAD TO NOTE, the Death last week of MRS. S. F. B. MORSE. Our deepest Sympathy to Mr. Morse and the family....

COUNTY MUSIC TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MEETS

The Monterey County Music Teachers Association met at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Goudge in Carmel last Tuesday evening.

After a very short business meeting Mr. John Farr gave an informal talk on the relationship of the private music teachers to the public schools. This was followed by a musical program. Mrs. Dorothy Goudge played a group of numbers, followed by Mr. Wade Parks, a new member. Mr. E. C. Hopkins then played one of his own compositions.

CARMEL PTA TO HEAR PSYCHOLOGIST TUESDAY

Mr. Fred Laue, Monterey County School psychologist, will be the speaker at the November meeting of the Carmel PTA, to be held in the Sunset School cafeteria next Tuesday, November 13, at three o'clock. Mr. Laue, who is also Coordinator of Secondary Education for the Monterey County schools, has had wide experience in guidance work in the high schools of the county. He has also been supervisor of testing and psychologist for the Madera County schools, and superintendent of schools in several communities in New Jersey.

He will attempt in his speech to show parents and teachers how they look to each other. Mr. Laue's speech should throw light on the points of misunderstanding and conflict between parents and teachers and point the way toward more successful cooperation for the good of the children.

The meeting will be preceded by a tea, and as usual there will be an attendant on duty in the kindergarten room to take charge of small children of those attending.
